Case No. _____

RULE 26.1 CERTIFICATE OF CORPORATE DISCLOSURE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 26.1, and the D.C. Circuit Rule 26.1, Petitioners, Southern Company Services, Inc., Alabama Power Company, Georgia Power Company, Gulf Power Company, and Mississippi Power Company, certify as follows. Each Petitioner is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Southern Company, which is a publicly-held corporation. Other than Southern Company, no publicly-held company owns 10% or more of any of Petitioners' stock. No publicly-held company holds 10% or more of Southern Company's stock. Southern Company stock is traded publicly on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “SO.”

Through its retail subsidiaries, Southern Company is a leading U.S. producer of electricity, generating and delivering electricity to over four million customers in the southeastern United States. Southern Company retail subsidiaries include four vertically integrated electric utilities—Alabama Power Company, Georgia Power Company, Gulf Power Company, and Mississippi Power Company. These subsidiaries, each a Petitioner here, operate coal, natural gas, oil, nuclear, and hydroelectric generating capacity. Southern Company Services, Inc. is the services company for Southern Company and its operating subsidiaries. Southern Company Services, Inc. provides, among other things, engineering and other technical support for the operating companies.
